*"Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." Isaiah 43:19*

In a meeting with our synod staff a couple of months ago, Pastor Dara Clifford, the Director for Evangelical Mission, shared a document with us called Holy Conversations. She encouraged all congregations to use this resource as a tool for conversations. I gave copies of the questions to our church council and asked council members to take time to answer the questions in preparation for future conversations. Pastor Dara stated that these questions are meant to help us have conversations as part of discerning the season of our congregation's life and discerning what direction God is calling the congregation. It was suggested at the last council meeting that the whole congregation should be involved in this reflection so here are the questions for your reflection.

The first page of questions invites us to reflect on the previous 10 years in our congregation.

1. Do we have a pattern of growth in attendance?
2. Will that trend allow us to thrive and develop ministry for the future?
3. Can we maintain our own existence and provide ministry in the community?
4. Can we survive without some form of life support from bequests, or special gifts?
5. Do we have sufficient numbers of people to volunteer for ministry within the congregation and outreach into the community?
6. Are new efforts in evangelism and Christian education feasible?
7. Are there sufficient funds and interested membership to do ministry within the congregation as well as outreach and evangelism into the community and world?
8. Are we experiencing the presence of first-time visitors on a regular basis?
9. Do they return for a second or a third visit?
10. Do 20-25% of our first-time visitors eventually join the congregation?
11. Is the congregation's main focus on outreach/evangelism? 12.
12. Is the congregation striving to do more than trying to survive/keep the doors open?
13. Has the congregation grown in the last five years?
14. Do we have enough members to do ministry well?
15. Does giving in the congregation enable "Great Commission" work, or does most of the giving go towards maintenance and survival?
16. Are there young families active in the church?
17. Are the demographics (age, race, gender, etc.) of your congregation reflective of the community you are located in?
18. Has the congregation maintained a good level of stewardship including several families (10-12) who tithe faithfully to the congregation?
19. Is the congregation willing/able to adapt its ministry and lifestyle in order to develop the ministries that will meet the needs of a changing community?
20. Is the present facility physically adaptable for use?
21. Can the congregation afford the repairs that are needed to use these facilities for ministry?

The next set of questions is more reflective:

1. What exciting thing has God done in your midst [congregation] in the last year?
2. Where is your congregation afraid?
3. What is your dream for your congregation?

I would add one more, Where do you think God is leading us, guiding us, directing us as a congregation for the future of the church? As I have asked the council members, I now ask you to take some time and reflect on these questions. If you are willing, jot down some of your thoughts and share them with me or a council member. Together we can discern where God is at work making all things new.

Archive Committee

This committee was established by the current Finance Committee on August 23rd, 2023. Currently, they have only met twice, with the goal of organizing and preserving First Lutheran’s documented history. Acid-free pocket holders have been purchased and a log of the items being put in them, has been started by the committee. Archiving is an ongoing task and responsibility of First Lutheran’s members. The committee’s wish is that there are more members of First that are interested in helping preserve First Lutheran’s history. It is known that the 125th Anniversary of First will be celebrated in 2025. The committee’s goal is to safely display documented history of First at that time. For any member of First, wishing to be a part of this committee somehow, now or in the future, please contact Connie Henn, Dar Cravillion or Colleen Hein.

All Saints
Observance:

On Sunday, November 5 we will be remembering those saints who have died during the past year. During worship on that day, we will light a candle in remembrance of each member and friend of the congregation who has died this past year. If you have a friend or family member who was not a member of First that you would like to have included, please call the church office. In addition, we plan to set up a memory table in the Fellowship Hall. We invite you to bring a picture of your loved one to be part of the memory table. Please drop the pictures off in the church office by November 1.

VETERANS DAY

HONORING ALL WHO SERVED

Veteran Recognition

On Sunday, November 12, our congregation will recognize and honor our members who are living veterans or active military. We will be assembling a small information booklet and would like to include their information. We invite all members who are veterans or active military to share their information by completing one of the information forms available on the table in the narthex. Please submit completed forms to the church office along with a picture by November 5.

Free Online Bible Study

Do you ever wonder who Jesus is?

Maybe you've read the Gospels before, but you still feel like you don't have a deep understanding of how they are different.

If you're looking to connect with Jesus on a deeper level, I encourage you to check out the newest free online course from Luther Seminary called Exploring the Gospel of John.

The Gospel of John

LUTHER SEMINARY

PROFESSOR MARY HINKLE SHORE

J-TERM 2012

The Gospel of John exists for all of us

—to transform our belief when we recognize the difference Jesus makes in our everyday lives.

Martin Luther even once said, “Should a tyrant succeed in destroying the Holy Scriptures and only a single copy of the epistle to the Romans and the Gospel according to John escape him, Christianity would be saved.”

The five-session bible study is completely online, with a new session emailed to you each week, to be explored at your convenience. You can start faithfully exploring the free online course today:

I encourage you to sign up for the free online course and explore this amazing book of the Bible for yourself. -Pastor Rebekah

ELCA Missionaries

This summer the ELCA welcomed 10 new missionaries who are now on their way to serving in eight countries around the world. They bring different skills, interests, and experiences, but they share a deep passion for global service.

ELCA missionaries are serving as teachers, healthcare workers, communicators, pastors, and more. The relationships they form build the foundation of our global community of faith.

For even more stories about our new missionaries, follow the ELCA on Facebook and Instagram and subscribe to the “Global Links” newsletter.

October Mission: Lutheran Disaster Response Maui Wildfires

In August multiple wildfires broke out on the Hawaiian island of Maui. Exacerbated by strong winds, these fires destroyed homes, businesses, and lines of communication. Thousands of people were under evacuation orders, some moving to other Hawaiian islands. Wildfires were also burning on the Big Island of Hawaii, and the islands remain vulnerable to more fires this season.

Lutheran Disaster Response is coordinating with the Pacifica Synod and other partners to assess the needs of people impacted by the wildfires, working with them to provide for immediate needs and recovery amid the widespread destruction. Lutheran Disaster Response is committed to accompanying recovering communities in the years ahead.

Your gifts to Lutheran Disaster Response will support wildfire survivors. Gifts will be used in full (100%) to assist those affected by wildfires. Or make a general donation to Lutheran Disaster Response so we can respond to disasters whenever and wherever they strike.

Please pray for the Maui communities impacted by the wildfires. May God's healing presence bring them peace and hope in their time of need and give strength to those working diligently to contain the fires and care for affected communities.

The Poy Sippi Community Food Pantry News:

The food pantry is located at First Lutheran Church in Poy Sippi.

➔ Soup and Fruit Cocktail

The food pantry will be open the first and third Friday* of each month, unless a Friday falls on a holiday.

Hours are: 9:30am-10:30am and 3:30pm-4:30pm.

The Food Pantry graciously accepts 'in date' food and monetary donations.

We would not be able to serve the community without your generous help and support!

Thank you to everyone who supports this great ministry.

Coordinators of the pantry: Jody and Rodger Surprise, phone 920-987-5024,

Food Donations: Judy Schierland, phone 920-987-5582,

Backup: Patti Langkau 920-229-3193,

Money donations can be mailed to: Poy Sippi Community Food Pantry,

P.O. Box 250, Poy Sippi, WI 54967-0250.

Thank you so much for the surprise birthday celebration!

It was so wonderful to be honored by you with gifts for the food pantry. Your dedication to helping those in need is truly commendable, and it's heartwarming to see you support such a meaningful cause. The food pantry will undoubtedly benefit from your generosity, and many people will be grateful for the assistance they receive. Thank you so much for honoring me in this way. Pastor Rebekah

Thank you to Danny Button for the sweet ride in his restored '57 Chevy. He recently received an award at the Wild Rose car show and was pictured in the Resorter. Job well done Danny – it's a beauty!

This hit home for me

When a flashlight grows dim or quits working, do you just throw it away?
 Of course not. You change the batteries.

When a person messes up or finds themselves in a dark place, do you cast them aside?
 Of course not! You help them change their batteries.

Some need AA...attention and affection; some need AAA...attention, affection, and acceptance; some need C...compassion; some need D...direction. And if they still don't seem to shine...simply sit with them quietly and share your light.
